

Question

In the comment box below, reflect on the past quarter's accomplishments and the top priorities for this upcoming quarter.

Manager

Answer

Congratulation to your promotion, you accomplishments in this quarter show that you well deserved it. I want to add your support with technical screenings for new hires to your list. For next quarter I am also looking forward to the Helvetia review as this should be a good opportunity for you to show how you technically lead a project.
